Graduation Credits:

1. The minimum graduation credits of this department (excluding military training credits, physical education credits, and education credits) are 128 credits, including 28 university compulsory credits, 72 departmental compulsory credits, and 28 departmental elective credits. (*Calligraphy is a compulsory elective course for Teacher Education students; for non-Teacher Education students, the taking of department-professional educational courses can be counted into departmental elective credits.)
2. Except for retake/make-up courses, departmental compulsory courses are limited to be taken by current-grade students; departmental elective courses are not limited to students in different years.
3. Newly-added departmental elective subjects (not limited to which semester) are all recognized as our departmental graduation credits.
4. At most 10 departmental graduation credits can be recognized after taking extra-departmental subjects. The credits include extra-departmental professional courses, elective courses offered by college of liberal arts, pre-applied graduate school courses (after entry, the courses cannot be counted as graduation credits of the graduate school), and the courses' credits of the exchange-school. The credits do not include the courses of general education, education, minor major, or double majors.
5. If exchange students' credits are to be counted as compulsory credits of the department, they must be reviewed and approved by the department executive meeting and the college executive meeting in accordance with regulations.
6. The number of long-distance teaching course credits in the total number of credits for graduation should not exceed one-half of the total number of credits for graduation.

Graduation Threshold of Assessment of Information Competency :

1. Bachelor's degree students in this department must firstly pass the Graduation Threshold of Assessment of Information Competency before graduation: qualified for or meet any information-related certificate or course listed in the "Information Competency Certification Correspondence Table" attached to the "Implementation Regulations of the Graduation Threshold of Assessment of Information Competency of National Changhua University of Education" . Only by passing the examination standard can you be qualified for graduation.

2. Physically and Mentally Disabled students are exempt from the regulations.

3. Other unspecified matters shall be handled in accordance with the "Implementation Regulations of the Graduation Threshold of Assessment of Information Competency of National Changhua University of Education" .
